New Face/Voice at ORPD:

On October 1, 2013 Courtney Guiddy was hired to fill our last Dispatcher/Clerk position. She is bi-lingual (Spanish and English) and has excellent typing/clerical skills.

Under the new State-mandated certification requirements to be a 9-1-1 Public Safety Telecommunicator (PST), Ms. Guiddy must attend a minimum of 232-hours of training within her first year of employment. Since the Ocean Ridge Police Department has received certification from the FL Department of Health as a training facility, all of this training will be done in-house; thereby avoiding the need & expense of sending her to Palm Beach State College.

Welcome, Courtney!

Florida Attorney General Pam Bondi joins fight against Human Trafficking:

Florida ranks high for victims of sexual exploitation and human trafficking; especially as these relate to children. Included in this month's newsletter is a flyer that explains the "Pledge for Online Safety" program. Please take some time to review this information with your children and encourage them to take the "pledge".

7th Annual DEA Prescription Drug Take Back Initiative (Update):

In cooperation with the Ocean Ridge Police Department, the Drug Enforcement Administration's (DEA) Miami Field Division (MFD) conducted their 7th Annual Prescription Drug Take Back Initiative on Saturday, October 26, 2013. This was a one-day collaborative effort with our Federal, State and Local law enforcement counterparts that was designed to remove potentially dangerous prescription drugs from our nation's homes. This initiative provided an opportunity for the public to voluntarily surrender expired, unwanted or unused pharmaceutically controlled substances and other medications to law enforcement officers for destruction.

Here in Ocean Ridge, we turned over nearly 18 pounds of surrendered prescription drugs.

As a reminder, thru the Palm Beach County Substance Abuse Coalition, the Ocean Ridge Police Department has a permanent Prescription Drug Collection Box in the lobby. So, in addition to this event, this drop box is available to the public 24/7 for the disposal of unwanted/outdated prescription drugs.

When was the last time you tested your burglar and/or fire alarm system?

As we enter the Holiday Season, one of the best protections for you, your family and your possessions is a fully functional, activated alarm system.

Regardless of whether or not your system is connected directly to the Ocean Ridge Police Department or it alerts a private monitoring service, annual testing is essential to confirm that it is in proper working order. This is especially important if you have altered your telephone service by installing products such as Comcast's Triple-Play or Xfinity, AT&T's U-verse, Magic Jack, Vonage or any other Voice over IP device. Such services MAY require the installation of additional equipment, and the associated added expense, to insure your alarm system remains fully functional.

It just takes a moment to call whoever monitors your system and let them know that you want to conduct a test. In a matter of a few minutes, you will have determined the status of your system. The resulting peace of mind will allow you to focus on the many other activities associated with the holidays.

This is also a great time to perform the annual task of changing the batteries in the smoke detectors throughout your home.

On behalf of the men and women of the Ocean Ridge Police Department, I wish you a happy and safe holiday season.

Thank you for your attention!

Did you hug a Veteran on Veteran's Day?

I have enclosed an article from the Sunday, 11/10/13 edition of the Palm Beach Post that was composed by Kathy Gwynn in honor of Veteran's Day, Monday, 11/11/13. The article not only reminded me of the contribution and sacrifice of all of our Service men and women, but also of the brief opportunity I had to meet and coach "Cowboy Mike" while he and my son played hockey together.

Allow me to take this time to remind you that - right here in Ocean Ridge - there is a memorial to PFC Michael Metcalf at the south/east corner of Oceanfront Park. Following the approval of the City of Boynton Beach, the site was selected by his family as a fitting tribute to him as an avid surfer. Next time you visit the park, please take a moment to visit this tranquil spot.

Attorney General Pam Bondi's Online Safety Tip Sheet

Don't Let an Instant Message Become an Instant Nightmare

Victims of human trafficking include children, women and men who are subjected to sexual exploitation or forced labor through force, fraud or coercion. According to the National Human Trafficking Resource Center, there are 27 million people enslaved worldwide. Sadly, this horrific crime is happening right here in Florida. In 2011, the National Human Trafficking Resource Center ranked Florida third in the number of calls received by the center's human trafficking hotline.

Attorney General Pam Bondi is dedicated to making Florida a zero-tolerance state for human trafficking, and she asks you, parents, to help protect your children. Human traffickers recruit victims using various means, including the Internet and social media, and they prey on children who are vulnerable and seeking love and approval. Human traffickers have online access, and you can take steps to prevent them from accessing your children.

Follow these tips with your children and ask them to sign the Online Safety Pledge today to help prevent them from becoming the next human trafficking victim.

Tips for Parents

- Talk to your children about sex trafficking and sexual abuse. Describe human trafficking as modern-day slavery, where people are captured and treated inhumanely. Awareness is the first step in preventing it;
- Restrict use of the computer to the living room or other area of the house where other family members are present;
- Know your child's screen names and passwords, even if you have your child write them down and put them in a sealed envelope. If anything happens, you will be able to access your child's accounts to trace who he or she has been communicating with;
- Use the parental control settings on your computer to check the Internet history. Look for warning signs in your children, such as: mood swings and anxiety; new friends who are significantly older; and new gifts, pre-paid credit cards, clothes or cell phones that you did not purchase; and
- Let your children know that they can talk to you, or a trusted adult, about anything that makes them uncomfortable.

Sign the Pledge for Online Safety

I, _____, pledge:

- NEVER to share inappropriate pictures of myself;
- NEVER to accept a "friend" request or other type of request from a stranger;
- NEVER to agree to meet with someone I've met online, or share personal information, such as my home address, school name, or phone number;
- To tell an adult immediately if a stranger uses a social media site, email, or other form of communication to express love or admiration for me, promises me a ticket to another location, or promises to make me a star; and
- To remember that I can talk to my parents, or a trusted adult, about anything.

HOT TOPIC VETERANS DAY

For 'Cowboy Mike' and all the other heroes

By Kathy Gwynn

It is hard to believe that it has been 19 months since Palm Beach County and Boynton Beach lost their first U.S. Army soldier in Afghanistan. Pfc. Mike Metcalf received the Bronze Star and Purple Heart. These were given to him for his heroism and for the ultimate sacrifice.

The Mike I remember — and the one I think we all remember — was the bigger-than-life Mike. My first encounter with him was when he played roller hockey for West Boynton Beach. He was on my son's team, and there began a friendship that lasted for many years. After sophomore year, we lost track of Mike until that April day in 2012, when my son called with the news of Mike's death. We were all in shock.

He was killed by a roadside bomb as he drove a Humvee to rescue some soldiers. On May 17, 2012, Mike was buried in Arlington National Cemetery. That was two days after his 23rd birthday. One month later, I found myself at Arlington. Mike's grave had just a marker, no sod had been placed. Like others around him, it was all new.

A year later, I was back to Arlington, and it's much different. A white marble headstone stands, marking Mike's grave and all his honors. I thought it was very fitting, especially for "Cowboy Mike." On the ground was a large stone that had a picture of Mike and Kim. You could feel the love.

A voice came from behind me. The young woman asked me if this was my son. I told her that he was a friend of my son. They played hockey together. I also told her of Mike's wonderful personality, his heroism and his sacrifice. I told her about his life. This woman told me that she was visiting with her family. She wanted her two children to see for themselves the sacrifices others have made. She said she was sorry for my loss and that she felt I guess at that point I realized that I was surrounded by heroes. All the men and women who have served in the military are heroes, and we should acknowledge them.

On this Veterans Day, I think Mike would want us to know that we live in the greatest country on Earth. He would want us to know that no sacrifice is too big or too small. He would want us to be proud that we are Americans.

Kathy Gwynn lives in Boynton Beach.

years. They all called Mike "Combat Mike," for his love of wearing fatigues. We all knew he

* Replacements: Since 2010, each new vehicle purchased for Patrol use has come with an extended 5-year Warranty. As such, the "life" of these vehicles can be extended to 4 years; as any major repair would be covered.

 "Engine Miles": Per Automotive Industry Standards, idle time causes engine wear equivalent to being driven. Per Ford, that equivalent is 33 miles per hour, which is reflected in the August report. Previously, we were told it was 13 miles per hour. Dodge is 27 miles per hour.
