REMINDER: Oceanfront Park Changes Hours:

Effective March 1st, the City of Boynton Beach has decided to close Oceanfront Park at 6415 N. Ocean Blvd. at 9:00 PM. The former time was 11:00 PM. This is a result of reviewing activity that has been occurring after dark; and puts this park more in line with other area parks that close at Sunset. The Park will continue to open at Sunrise.

Turtle Season: March 1st – October 31st

It's that time again and ORPD officers have been conducting patrols of the beach to specifically identify lighting violations. Those not in compliance have been notified.

To assist you in becoming knowledgeable, a "Guide to Protecting Sea Turtles" is included in the month's newsletter. Likewise, a brochure on lighting is attached. These were published by the Palm Beach County Department of Environmental Resources Management. Additional copies, as well as more information, are available on their website: www.pbcgov.org/erm

Reminder: This month's lecture series at Town Hall will be a presentation by Dr. Kirt Rusenko, a Marine Conservationist from the Gumbo Limbo Nature Center. The presentation is free and begins at 7:00PM in the Commission Chambers.

“See Something, Say Something”

While the end of another “season” may be fast approaching, this is not the time to let down your guard regarding unsolicited visitors, phone calls, emails, etc. Likewise, you are the best judge of what the normal or routine activity is that takes place in your neighborhood.

If something unusual comes to your attention, call the Police – when it is occurring! There has been a tremendous increase in the reporting of such events; and we greatly appreciate it.

Previously, delayed reporting of “suspicious” activity occurred; with the information coming hours, days, or weeks after the fact. This not only impeded our investigation, but it may have contributed to someone being needlessly victimized.

So, once again, keep up the good work; and if you see something, say something!
