PUBLIC INFORMATION/ PRESS RELEASE

The Ocean Ridge Police Department is currently investigating an armed robbery that occurred at 5:15 PM Saturday February 27, 2016.

On Saturday February 27, 2016, the Ocean Ridge Police Department responded to the report of an armed robbery on Coconut Lane in the Town of Ocean Ridge. Officers met with two victims who reported that a small black vehicle occupied by three black male subjects approached them while they were returning from the beach area. Two of the three subjects reportedly exited the vehicle and confronted the victims, with one suspect pointing a handgun and demanding the victim's turnover two "hover-board" devices in their possession. The suspects then entered their vehicle and left the area without further incident.

The Ocean Ridge Police Department is actively working this incident therefore, as this is an active and ongoing investigation no additional information will be released at this time.

Should you have information directly related to this case, please call the Ocean Ridge Police Department at: (561) 732-8331.
